Byron.
Business is brisk here in all branches.

Lawyer Chandler of the county seat was in town over Sunday.

Lightning struck a barn on D. Eddy's farm, last Monday, burning the building and all its contents.

E. Button moved into the Downer House this week.

Dr. Spencer of Howell, was called to see Mrs. J. Cooper last Monday.

Mrs. Mary Carpenter, who has been spending the winter with her son in Owosso has returned home.

E. Hadsall and wife are at Ann Arbor this week.

Mr. J. Siles is building a fine residence on his farm two miles south of here.

Work began at the brick and tile works of Burlingame & Mire this week.

O. Gibbs and family of Clio, are visiting at the home of his father, Rev. C. Gibbs.

The funeral of D. Phillips was held at the M. E. church last Sabbath, Rev. Gibbs officiating. Mr. Phillips was well known throughout this section and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn his loss. The deceased was father of Mrs. G. McCurdy of Owosso. CONARD.

Stock Notes.

E. O. Dewey, of THE TIMES, has purchased of Edward Fisher, of this city, the three year old filly, Brown Bessie, sired by Byerly Abdallah, sire of Jerome Turner 2:15 1/2, dam by Louis Napoleon, sire of Jerome Eddy 2:16 1/2. The filly is standard bred, is a large strong mare, a good looker and beside being well bred is a good stepper.

Dewey & Stewart's mare, Nellie Henkle presented them with a filly by Louis Napoleon, on the 29th ult. Nellie is by Amos Legal Tender Jr. 2:27; 2d dam by Wilson's Blue Bull.

John Turnbell has purchased from the Crapo farm, Flint, a Hereford bull, a four year old cow and a heifer calf. We are glad to see some of this excellent beef stock come into Shiawassee county.

E. S. Burnett has recently sold to Mr. L. Schad, of Vernon, Shiawassee county, Cleveland Vol. 31, sired by Royal Prince 6:18 1/2 Vol. 4, dam Pearl 12th, by Frantic Duke 3:26 1/2, tracing to im. Strawberry 5th, by Deliverance (11347). Also to Mr. Charles Stevens, of Perry, the young Shorthorn bull, Lightly Duke, sired by Gifty Bell Duke 7:01 1/2 Vol. 31, dam Lightly, by Ganvia Geneva 14:29 1/2, tracing to imported Irena by Sheldon 8:57. Lightly was bred in Kentucky; her produce being strong, hardy animals, with large bone and good coats.

Chesaning Argus, Dr. H. B. Hadley of Owosso, was in town yesterday visiting S. Donogh, who is now lying dangerously ill.—L. E. Gould of Owosso, was in town last Saturday, taking testimony in a certain legal case. He made the Argus a friendly call. Mr. Gould has until the last year been publishing the Bancroft Advertiser, which he sold and commenced the practice of law in Owosso. We believe he was the lucky candidate for circuit court commissioner at the last Shiawassee county election. Mr. Gould's wife is founder and principal of the Oakside school at Owosso, an institution that nothing but words of praise are spoken in its favor, and is meeting with fine success.—Decoration Day will be observed in Chesaning this year with more patriotism and earnestness than ever.

O. S. Smith, of Owosso, has been engaged to deliver the oration, and G. A. R. and the Sons of Vets, and everything else that has battled for right, are making expectations on observing the day in grand style. So may it be.
